

Florida Residency Classification

In order to receive in-state tuition rates, all adult applicants to NFTC must prove that they have established and maintained legal Florida residency for the last consecutive 12 months prior to their first day of school. Students unable to prove in-state residency will be required to pay out-of-state tuition rates.

Please complete this form and attach copies of two approved Florida documents (approved list on page 2).

Residence in Florida must be as a bona fide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education. Living in or attending school in Florida will not in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.

Person claiming Florida Residency must complete this section and sign.
